

Father Edmund Morman Memorial Scholarship Application

- Purpose: The Scholarship was established to serve as a lasting tribute in the name of Father Edmund Morman, who gave his love and his life freely to God, the Church, and the people he touched. In his memory, this fund shall encourage and assist young people to further their education.
- Eligibility: The Scholarship is to be awarded to a New Riegel High School Senior student. The student must have attended New Riegel High School for at least two years and he/she must also be planning to enter a post-secondary school or institute of higher learning in a two or four-year degree program in the fall of the academic year immediately following graduation.
- Award: This annual scholarship will consist of a one-year stipend provided by the interest accrued from the principal of the endowment fund. A check will be made payable to the college or university that the student will be attending. The recipient shall present necessary documents to the superintendent to verify enrollment prior to the issuance of the monetary award.
- Selection Criteria: All potential recipients must complete and submit three reference forms. References should be provided by church, school and/or community members who have knowledge of the applicant, but who are not related to the applicant, (especially a member of the applicant's immediate family, such as parents, grandparents and siblings).
- Selection Committee: The selection committee will be comprised of the NRHS principal, (with faculty recommendations). NRHS school counselor, the pastor of All Saints Parish, (formerly the Parish of St. Boniface, New Riegel; St. Peter, Alvada; and St. Nicholas, Frenchtown at the time of Father Morman's death), the youth director for All Saints Parish, and the All Saints PRE senior class teacher(s).
- Deadline: Return completed application to the NRHS office by March 31.
